

Cleopha

The Queen is gentle, loving, and ever good.
She is ever calling.

Wherever she goes her majesty precedes her.
Wherever she is seen her playfulness is a delight to behold.

She is followed by Angels,
Walking with and surrounding the King,
Who has committed himself
To uplift the material for the spiritual.

And so before him goes the Queen.
And after him goes the Queen.

Some people look on,
Not knowing or understanding
What to do,
Not hearing the call of the Queen.

But others do hear the call.
And they answer the call
With a love in their hearts
And with an exuberant dance in their feet.
