

Melody of My Thought

Melody of My Thought

Melody of my thought,
Breath of my soul,
Hear me call.

Most ancient Queen of Being,
Gentle Goddess of all,
Manifested on Earth and in Heaven,
Open your love unto me.

Moment by moment,
Let me come near you,
And be with you
In your eternal infinity
In all I do.

Let me touch you when my bare feet
Touch the aliveness of the earth's damp soil.
Let me see you when I see
The stars by night and the sky by day.
Let me hear you when I hear
The winds, the breakers of the ocean waves
And the thunder of the rainstorm.
Let me taste your nectar
Whenever I eat your vegetables and fish.
Let me smell you as I breathe
The fresh mountain air and water
In your wild fields of love's ecstasy.

Melody of my thought,
Breath of my soul,
Queen of my life,
Hear me:

I hereby recall, absorb, and dissolve in me
All discordant turbulence I have created.
I renounce all present and future
Power, glory, wealth, comfort, victory, and position
Which cannot be used for divine service.

I dedicate my individuality

Melody of My Thought

To uplift and to fulfill,
To heal and to bless,
To love and to create,
To transform and to harmonize.

Melody of my thought,
Breath of my soul,
Unity of my Being,
Royal Goddess of all that I am and can become,
Accept me,
Understand me,
And be One with me.
